"Chateaux Constantin" or "Constantin's fairytale". We only stayed for a few days, but we will remember them like fairytale days. Unique moments. We consider it an honour that we were the first visitors to this jewel in Angistro. We wish you from the bottom of our heart good luck with your work and so long.

Description

Chateaux Constantin is located in Agistro, Serres, which is famed for its thermal springs, known as the Agistro Hammam. The area is defined by its rich natural beauty, good food at the local tavernas and the local's innate hospitality a place where you can get away from the daily routine of the towns and cities. It's worth mentioning that Agistro is one of the few mountain locations in Greece that is easily accessible and doesn't require the use of difficult roads, the village is surrounded by green hills and is only a few kilometres from the motorway that joins Greece to neighbouring Bulgaria.

The eco boutique hotel has a total of 10 rooms of which 5 are doubles, 3 are penthouses, and there is also a suite and a small double. The rooms have a double bed, television, free international satellite channels, DVD player, fridge, min bar at extra cost, wardrobe, hairdryer, WC and shower with a traditional sink, fire burner, a type of cast iron heater that functions as a fireplace for which the wood is supplied for free. The main heat source is from the radiators. There is hot water 24hrs a day, and you are able to make coffee or tea in your room free of charge.

Upon arrival at the hotel you will find a local sweet wine awaiting you. The shampoo and shower gels are provided by KORRES. The mattresses are from the Italian Fashion House PerDomire, they are hypoallergenic and made of the revolutionary material Memory Foam. Both the duvet and two of the pillows are feather, and the other two pillows are hard anatomic. The rooms are exquisitely decorated. The extra surprise is breakfast in bed at no extra charge, the rooms have dining tables and chairs, and there are also large traditional balconies with a view. Free Wi-Fi is available throughout the reception area.

The suite has a hydro massage next to the bed and some of the double rooms have wood burners. Board games, packs of cards and magazine are also available free of charge. There is parking available at the rear of the hotel at no extra cost.

The Chateaux was created by Constantinos himself, who managed to combine taste with functionality and tradition with comfort. Constantinos has created a fairytale atmosphere that blends several seasons together.

Constantinos is a man with an eye for details, who does what he does with love. He graduated the Higher School of Hotel and Gastronomy Management in Munich, and he has a master's degree in Tourism Leisure Management Development. In Greece he graduated in marketing and advertising and has also taken part in several seminars and conferences making him one of the most sought after general managers in his country. He also has exquisite knowledge of cooking and wine.

Chateaux Constantin, as with all of his creations, was created with love and care. It is a place where we don't call you guests but friends. The hospitable environment in harmony with flawless architecture and exquisite taste will make you feel so comfortable that the only thing for which we can be sure of, is that you will return to visit us again.

Local Attractions

Agistro ~ Agistro has become the ultimate destination for a visitor seeking a truly relaxing experience. Located in the town centre is the Agistro «Clock Tower», a public Byzantine building that was erected under Andronikos Palaiologos III. The Byzantine Agistro Spa is the oldest working hamman in Greece, dates back to 950 AD and has significant architectural influences from the Ottoman conquerors. Agistro's five hammam are amongst the oldest in the country.

Fort Roupel ~ The heroic Fort Roupel is situated a short distance away from Agistro. A visitor can visit the fort, the section that functions as a museum and the SOUND and LIGHT building showing a 20 minute presentation regarding the heroic events of the Greek resistance to the German troops in April '41.

Lake Kerkini ~ Kerkini Lake is one of the largest bio-wetlands in Greece with rare natural beauty every season of the year and an abundance of wild birds including pelicans, wild ducks & herons.

Sidirokastro Castle ~ The Byzantine castle at Sidirokastro, perched on top of Isaris granite rock, is the city's symbol. It was begun in 527 AD by the emperor Ioustinianos and completed by Andronikos Palaiologos III (1326AD-1341AD).

Lailias Ski Centre ~ The Lailias ski centre is home to one of the most important outdoor activities in the Serres County.

Lailias Forest ~ The Lailias is the greatest forest expanse of the Serres Prefecture, situated on the west side of Vrontous mountain and spans over 33,000.00 acres.

Monastery of St. John the Baptist ~ The Monastery of St. John the Baptist Serres was built in 1270 and is a testament to the beauty of Byzantine art.

Alistratis Cave ~ Alistratis Cave contains huge stalagmites and stalactites in a variety of colours and rare shapes from eccentrics or helictites "defying" the natural laws of gravity and following erratic paths. The vast amount of rare eccentrics in what makes this cave unique amongst others caves in Greece.

Aggitis River ~ Just a mere breath away from the manmade entrance to Alistratis cave is the Aggitis River gorge, which is the largest tributary of Strymonas delta, and is about 75km in length. The gorge and Aggitis river are idea for river sports.

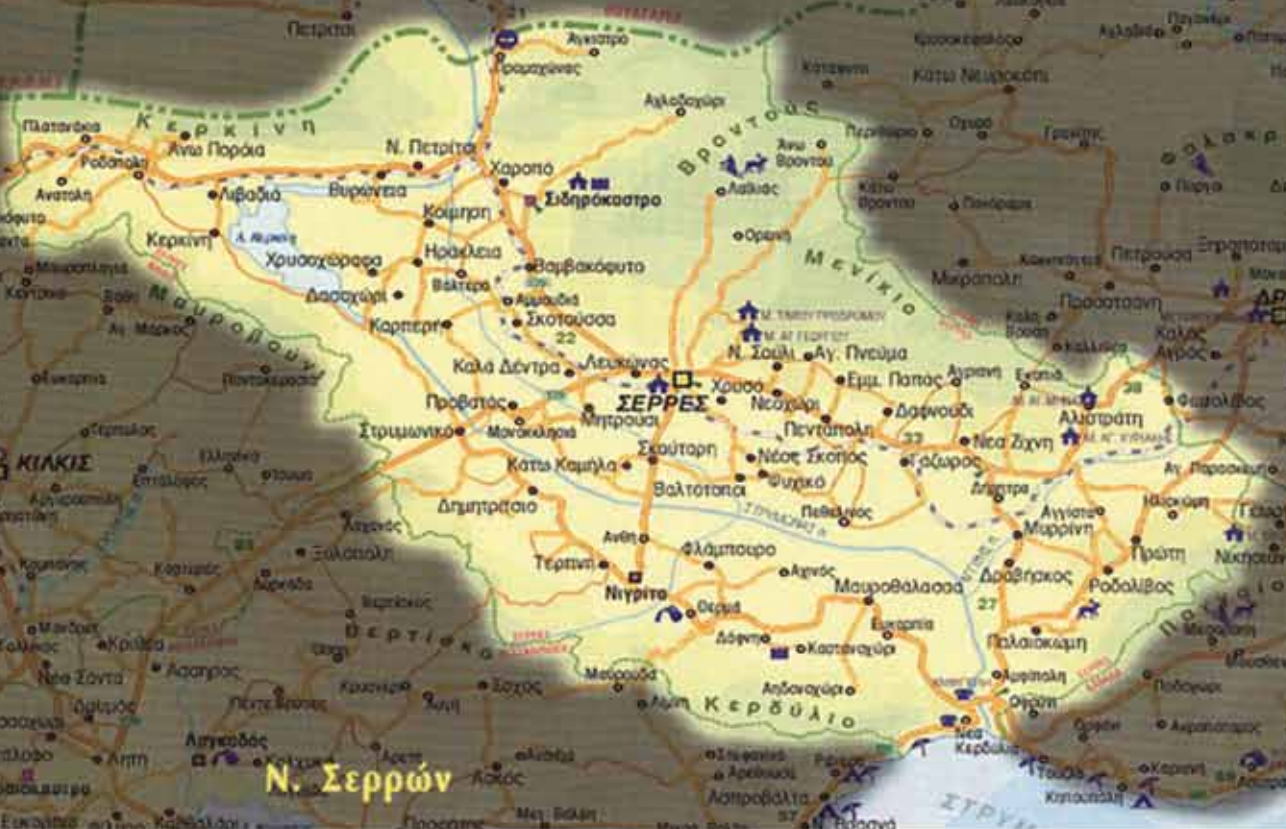

Monastery of Panagia Eikosifoinissa ~ The Monastery is in a stunning setting at 753m altitude. It is one of two holy places in eastern Macedonia that are still the destination of numerous faith followers who come to pray to the «holy image of Theotokos» and relax in its calming environment.

Amphipolis ~ The city was founded by the Athenians and was an important Hellenic centre during the Macedonian and Roman years. The Amphipolis Lion is one of the most important monuments, not just for Amphipolis but for Macedonia, and is situated next to the west bank of the Strymonas. There is also an Archeological Museum.

Bansko Ski Resort ~ Bulgaria's Number 1 Ski Resort is less than a 2 hour drive away (118 km) from Agistro Town

Bansko also offers world class 18-hole golf courses set amongst prestine lakes and greenery.

Casino ~ In neighbouring Bulgaria there is a casino, just 8 kilometres away.
